Write-up: Policy Details

Objective

The Personal Data Protection Policy is built upon the Personal Data Protection Act, which governs the collection, use and disclosure of personal data. The act addresses these concerns, by ensuring that individuals' personal data are safe guarded against misuse by regulating the processing and management of personal data

Responsibility

The Institute is responsible for the personal data in its possession or under its control, and will develop and implement policies and practices that are necessary for the Institute to meet the obligations under the Act.

The Institute is to ensure that individual data is secure at all times and safe from unauthorized access, alteration, use or loss. It is the responsibility of all staff to adhere to the policy of data collection, to provide a supportive environment and culture of best practice processing of personal data.

In the event the personal data is to be used for a new purpose, the Institute will notify you and seek your consent.

The Institute ensures that your Personal Data held by us shall be kept confidential. When transferring personal data to our third party service providers, agents and/or our affiliates or related corporations whether in Singapore or elsewhere in order to carry out one or more of the purposes listed above, we will require them to ensure that your Personal Data disclosed to them is kept confidential and secure.

3. Specific Issues for the Disclosure of Personal Data to third parties

We respect the confidentiality of the personal data you have provided to us.

In that regard, we will not disclose any of your personal data to any third parties (unless otherwise for the purposes stated above) without first obtaining your expressed consent permitting us to do so. However, please note that we may disclose your personal data to third parties without first obtaining your consent in certain situations, including, without limitation, the following:

- a. The disclosure is required based on the applicable laws and/or regulations;
- b. The purpose of such disclosure is clearly in your interests and consent cannot be obtained in a timely way;
- c. The disclosure is necessary to respond to an emergency that threatens the life, health or safety of yourself or another individual;
- d. There are reasonable grounds to believe that the health or safety of yourself or another individual will be seriously affected and consent for the disclosure of the data cannot be obtained in a timely way, provided that we shall, as soon as may be practicable, notify you of the disclosure and the purposes of the disclosure;
- e. The disclosure is necessary for any investigation or proceedings;
- f. The personal data is disclosed to any officer of a prescribed law enforcement agency, upon production of written authorization signed by the head or director of that law enforcement agency or a person of a similar rank, certifying that the personal data is necessary for the purposes of the functions or duties of the officer; and/or
- g. The disclosure is to a public agency and such disclosure is necessary in the public interest.

The instances listed above are not intended to be exhaustive. For an exhaustive list of exceptions, you are encouraged to peruse the PDPA, which is publicly available at <http://statutes.agc.gov.sg>.

4. Withdrawal of Consent

You may withdraw your consent to any or all use of Personal Data for any or all of the purposes set out in this policy in writing and submitting through our DPO. If you withdraw your consent to the use of your Personal Data for any or all purposes, depending on the nature of your request, the Institute may not be in a position to continue to provide our services to you or administer any contractual relationship in place, in which case the Institute reserves the right to cease providing the services and/or terminate the contractual relationship with you.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, you agree and acknowledge that any withdrawal of your consents in accordance with the terms set out in this notice will not affect any consent which you may have provided to the Institute in respect of the use of your Singapore telephone number(s) for the receiving of marketing or promotional information.
